

WORDS Kill

Words were spoken loudly
As cheers hearing dearly
They love saying words loudly
But never notice it hurts ~~hardly~~ deeply

 There were names, jokes and sarcastic
With lots of ways they say
You are ugly, you are not worthy
They don't know, they just don't

 We thought everything was okay
We thought everything was fine
We thought everything was alright
Until one day we're being killed from the inside
Until there's no more light
Until there's no more hope
As we thought
We'll never make it out ~~to~~ alive

If someone says it is usual not it is not
If someone says it doesn't hurt
no it cuts, breaks

No, no you could never understand
Because words are from you
And your words kill
Your words hurts
Until it kills.
